WELCOME!
All Undergraduate Student Assembly
for majors in Environmental Science and in Sustainable Plant Systems
What’s new for 2015-2016?

ENVS major: development and program fees application
   Educational Enhancement - Marketability

Accelerated Masters Program (AMP)
   Move from four year B.S. to five year M.S. in ENVS
   Start planning early!

SPS major: quickly growing in numbers
   USDA projects >10% job growth through 2022

Academic Program Review, APR, underway in SWES
   Examine - Assess -- Strengthen
Fall Events:

SWES Honor’s Assembly (September 17, 2015)
for ENVS, SPS, and SPLS student’s interested in doing an Honor’s Thesis

SWES Undergraduate Colloquium: (September 28, 2015)
“Life as an Environmental Consultant” Seminar Presentation
Jon Rohrer, Environmental Consulting & Management

SWES Undergraduate Picnic (October 9, 2015 FAMILY WEEK-END!)
for ALL ENVS and SPS majors and their guests – Reid Park (4:30 – 6:00 pm)

Internship Workshop (November 2015)
Professional Development: “How to land your perfect Internship"
Get Involved!

Clubs: SWES Club; Plant Science Club; MACS; Solar Cats; Compost Cats; Eco-Reps; Students for Sustainability; Student Env. Heath Sciences Association

Research: Environmental Science; Soil, Plant, Atmospheric Systems; Critical Zone Science

Internships and Volunteer Opportunities
   Government (Federal, State, Local), NGOs, Private Industry

Senior Thesis: Turn field and laboratory studies into thesis projects for credit

EarthWeek/SWES\textsubscript{X} Spring 2016 SEES Symposia on the UA Campus