

DISSERTATION PROSPECTUS

Doctoral Candidates should submit a final prospectus to their dissertation committee for review soon after advancement to candidacy, and prior to beginning your dissertation writing. The Prospectus should be approved a minimum of six months before scheduling the Final Oral Defense. The prospectus provides a preliminary description of the proposed dissertation.

The Dissertation Prospectus should include a

Title Page

Title, double spaced if over one line and centered at top of the page
Name, Program, Student ID, double spaced and centered under title

Problem Statement

One to two page research statement contains the following:

- Argument to address the gap in research literature in terms of relevance to the discipline
- Evidence (citations) providing justification that this research is meaningful
- Purpose of study
- What needs to be studied, describing variable and conjectured relationship among them

Research Question

Which will be the foundation for the generation of a Hypotheses

Significance

One to two paragraphs

Background

Literature search supporting assertions in the Problem Statement

Framework

Identifies Research design decisions: method of inquiry, data collection and analysis.

Other Information such as challenges or barriers that may need to be addressed.

References

DISSERTATION PROSPECTUS APPROVAL

Student _____

Date _____

Committee Members in Attendance:

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Comments:

Approved:

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____